The original meaning was roughly equivalent to the English phrase "the game is afoot", but its modern meaning, like that of the phrase "crossing the Rubicon", denotes passing the point of no return on a momentous decision and entering into a risky endeavor where the outcome is left to chance. They will always be there on the sidelines, cheering you towards failure, reminding you of what you have to do to prove them wrong. The Dark Island and the darkness had vanished for .
