South of France: A Bicycle Your France E-Guide

The earliest members of the church were all practitioners and believers of folk magic and treasure digging, which they saw as just another component of their religious worldview, but as time passed and folk magic came to be viewed with more suspicion, and with increased missionary effort to convert people who did not share those views, the church needed to distance itself from glass-looking, dowsing rods, parchments and magic daggers, and other practices that were becoming increasingly associated with witchcraft and chicanery. ADPSustainment, in a similar fashion, establishes the basic doctrinal framework for the critical role sustainment plays in the success of operations.
