The decisive historical fact is that modern privacy in its most relevant function, to shelter the intimate, was discovered as the opposite not of the political sphere but of the social, to which it What Is Justification By Faith therefore more closely and authentically related. Caste divisions served to reinforce class relations within agrarian contexts, primarily through the distinctions between "twice-born" dwijas wearers of the sacred thread, peasant castes that did not don the sacred thread and had to settle for inferior tenancy arrangements and provide free or discounted labor and services, and "untouchable" castes whose ritual impurity perpetuated a class of landless and often bonded laborers.
