The Works Of Archimedes

His version of Pocahontas's life -- very influential, quite colorful, much copied even as late as Blake -- has some interesting touches: savages "more affected by the tears of infancy, than the voice of humanity," begging Smith to "spare her family" and "to terminate all their differences by a new treaty," bitterly deploring her fate as a captive, throwing herself into Smith's arms in England, living "several years" as model wife .
