How couldst thou thyself use thy ordinary hot baths, should not the wood that heateth them first be changed.

A Description of Early Nineteenth Century Glasgow

The exhibition at the EACC also means the recovery of an artist and his concerns, which are still relevant in the age of the image, known as the information and communication age, in which the consumption of images has overwhelmed the consumption of beliefs and convictions, obviously liberalising the world of certain exterminating fanaticisms, which have reappeared in other conflict zones, refusing to disappear and strengthening themselves to an identical extent. No, he has not visited them, but he has visited his uncles.
